

AR - ART (AR)

*Course Fees are Per Credit Hour

AR 501. Advanced Photography. (3 Credits)

Selected in-depth study projects through independent study. May be repeated for three hours credit per semester. Prerequisite: AR 300.

Course Fees: $60

AR 503. Commercial Photography. (3 Credits)

Print page advertising photographic techniques with emphasis on large format camera work and computer manipulation of imagery. Prerequisite: AR 300.

Course Fees: $60

AR 511. Advanced Printmaking. (3 Credits)

Studies in mixed-media to achieve facility of individual expression. May be repeated for three hours credit per semester. Prerequisite: AR 411.

Course Fees: $60

AR 521. Advanced Drawing. (3 Credits)

Studies to integrate formal issues, technical skills, and content in contemporary drawing. May be repeated for three hours credit per semester. Prerequisite: AR 421.

Course Fees: $60

AR 542. Advanced Painting. (3 Credits)

A concentrated investigation of contemporary painting leading to the development of a personal style and content. May be repeated for three hours credit per semester. Prerequisite: nine credit hours AR 442 or permission of the instructor.

Course Fees: $60

AR 551. Advanced Ceramics. (3 Credits)

Emphasis on perfecting throwing and handbuilding techniques, glaze formulation, and experimental firing. May be repeated for three hours credit per semester. Prerequisite: AR 352.

Course Fees: $60

AR 580. Modern Art. (3 Credits)

An investigation and critical analysis of diverse modes, issues, and problems of 20th century visual art with an emphasis on independent research.

Course Fees: $60

AR 581. Modern Architecture. (3 Credits)

The theories and monuments of master architects in this century.

Course Fees: $60

AR 582. Italian Renaissance Art. (3 Credits)

Art and architecture in the 15th and 16th centuries in Italy.

Course Fees: $60

AR 583. American Art. (3 Credits)

Topics in the development of aesthetics and art in the United States.

Course Fees: $60

AR 584. History of Photography. (3 Credits)

European and American master photographers since 1839.

Course Fees: $60

AR 585. Theory and Criticism. (3 Credits)

Classical and current thought in art historical investigations.

Course Fees: $60

AR 591. Advanced Sculpture. (3 Credits)

Development of coherent sculptural works sustained in one or two mediums. May be repeated for three hours credit per semester.

Prerequisite: AR 392.

Course Fees: $60

AR 599. Independent Study-Practicum. (1-3 Credits)

Independent Study-Practicum allows students the opportunity to work on and further develop new concepts, pursue research, and engage in post-graduation study in the arts. Students will work one-on-one with the instructor of record to develop the content, goals and research proposal for the semester. The individualized study plan will include the research topic proposal, writings, readings, desired outcomes, critique dates, evaluation, and a syllabus. Students will have access to studio resources that are indicative of studio practice. The independent study can be assigned from a 1 to 3 credit hours depending upon the depth of the proposed project. Must be approved by both chair and faculty advisor.

Course Fees: $60