

HOUSING AND RESIDENCE LIFE RENT REFUND

Rent for all University housing (residence halls and apartments) is billed to the student's account and payable with tuition and other expenses according to the University's payment dates.

If a student officially withdraws from the University while residing in University housing, the student may qualify for a prorated refund of rent. This is determined by the date of the student's official check-out from the residence hall or University apartments.

Per Academic Semester

When	Percentage Refund
During the first week	80% refund
During the second week	60% refund
During the third week	40% refund
During the fourth week	20% refund
After the fourth week	No refund

Students are not eligible for a refund if vacating their assigned residence hall/apartment while remaining enrolled at the University. Residents are not eligible for a refund if suspended from the residence halls/apartments for any disciplinary reason.

Residence Halls

Residence hall room charges are applied to student accounts prior to the beginning of each semester (fall/spring). Residents enrolled for the following fall semester have the option of applying for summer hall residency at an additional charge. Residence halls do not close for University holidays; therefore, no additional charges will be applied for residence during these time periods.

Apartments

Apartment charges are applied to student accounts prior to the beginning of each semester (fall/spring). Apartment residents are billed for six months' rent with fall tuition and six months' rent with spring tuition.
