WITHDRAWAL REFUND POLICY

Refund of Tuition and Fees

- No refund will be processed for dropping a course or withdrawing from the university after the close of business on the eighth calendar day from the date full-term classes begin for the Fall and Spring regular sessions, except in certain cases with medical, military, or other extenuating circumstances.
- Students are responsible for consulting the university's academic calendar for deadlines regarding 8-week courses, intersession courses, and summer terms.
- A refund is subject to deductions for any indebtedness to the university, including payments under Title IV student aid programs.
- Transition to hybrid or online courses (including in-term transitions) will not result in a full or partial refund.

Effect of Withdrawal on Refunds

If you have received a refund check and withdraw from any course(s), you may owe a portion or all of it back to the UNA. You may consult with the Office of Student Accounts or the Office of Student Financial Aid to determine the effects of withdrawing from any course(s). More information on how withdrawing from courses may affect your financial aid, may be foundhere (https://www.una.edu/financial-aid/return-of-title-iv-funds.html).
