

STUDENT AFFAIRS

Objectives of the Division of Student Affairs

The UNA Division of Student Affairs provides co-curricular opportunities that enhance students' learning and overall educational experience. As such, the UNA Division of Student Affairs' services, programs, and activities are grounded in research-informed developmental theory and objectives aimed at enhancing the holistic and transformational development of our students. Through collaborative partnerships with all divisions across campus, Student Affairs contributes to a well-rounded and engaging experience that prepares students for current and future success.
