

CERTIFICATE IN LODGING AND TOURISM MANAGEMENT

The Lodging and Tourism Management certificate focuses on basic procedures used in front-of-the-house and back-of-the-house operations in lodging and tourism. These courses will prepare students for entry-level jobs as front desk agents, housekeepers, and positions in the travel industry. Students are encouraged to customize their course of study by selecting a course of their choice from the available HEM/HEMA/CAM/ CUA electives.

Code	Title	Hours
Hospitality and Events Management Core Courses		7
HEM 102	Introduction to the Hospitality Industry
HEMA 123	Field Experience I
HEMA 207	Career Preparation
HEM 200	Tourism Planning and Development	3
HEMA 240	Housekeeping Administration	3
HEMA 251	Front Office Management	3
HEM/HEMA/CUA/CAM elective		3
Total Hours		19