¹ Students in the Public History Minor program who also wish to earn a History Minor may overlap only one Public History elective toward their electives category for the History Minor. The courses required for the Public History minor, HI 320 and HI 496, cannot be counted toward the History electives for the History Minor when both a History Minor and a Public History Minor are sought. The Public History elective course chosen for overlap may be HI 411, HI 412, HI 413, HI 414, HI 415, HI 416, HI 465, HI 476, or HI 480. At least 6 credit hours of History electives (300-400 level) for the History Minor must come from non-public history elective courses.
