

CERTIFICATE IN SUSTAINABLE TRAILS AND WATERWAYS DEVELOPMENT

The Certificate in Sustainable Trails and Waterways Development provides individuals with the knowledge, skills, and credentials needed to plan, design, and manage outdoor recreational areas in a sustainable manner. By promoting environmental stewardship, community engagement, and professional expertise, this certificate program contributes to the preservation of natural resources, enhances user experiences, and supports long-term ecological sustainability in trail and waterway development.

Requirements for the Certificate in Sustainable Trails and Waterways Development

Code	Title	Hours
ES 146	Sustainable Earth	4
GE 384	Geographic Information Systems	4
SRM 345	Natural Resource Management	3
ES 495	Directed Research	3
Total Hours		14